
10% capacity. Each cell is a paired seed ratio against its same-gap zero-path control.
Positive: lower inflation; negative: higher. No seed or nonconverged result is removed.